Case No. 14-cv-04212-JSW

ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE STIPULATION TO MODIFY SCHEDULING ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 90

12
13 The Court has received the parties' stipulation to modify the scheduling order in this case.
14 The Court denies the stipulation without prejudice to the parties renewing their request after they 15 have considered the information set forth below.

16 The Court advanced the date for the pretrial conference from November 21, 2016 to 17 November 14, 2016. (See Docket No. 86.) Based on that new date, the parties' pretrial filings are 18 due on October 31, 2016. See Guidelines for Trial and Final Pretrial Conferences in Civil Jury
19 Cases, ¶¶ 1-2. Under those same guidelines, “[i]n order to ensure that motions in limine and 20 oppositions are timely filed, at least thirty (30) calendar days before the Final Pretrial Conference,
21 the moving party shall serve, but not file, the opening brief and at least twenty (20) calendar days
22 before the Final Pretrial Conference the responding party shall serve, but not file, the opposition.”
23 Id. ¶ 2(i). Thus, the parties would be required to serve motions in limine on October 21, 2016,
24 which is only two weeks after their proposed deadline to hear dispositive motions.

25 The Court is amenable to modifying the scheduling order. However, based on the parties'
26 proposal, the Court would likely need to continue the pretrial and trial dates.

28 //

Accordingly, it shall give the parties the opportunity to meet and confer on this issue and to submit a revised stipulation that takes this information into account.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
